

AUGUSTIN CLAYTON CHAPTER, DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

6 volumes, scrapbooks

Donor: Augustin Clayton Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution

SERIES ONE: Scrapbooks, 1976 - 1989, 6 vols., 1.9 cu. ft.

The scrapbooks cover from two (2) to eight (8) years per volume. They are filled with newspaper clippings, photographs, event programs and materials from the year's activities. The High School Good Citizens program begun in 1934 was initially awarded only to girls, but in 1975 boys were included. All students in good standing with the State Board of Education are eligible. A Clayton County history essay contest was the highlight of the annual February History month celebrations.
