Her last picture was "The Sound and the Fury" made in 1958. She then turned to television, appearing on the "Tennessee Ernie Ford Show," "Daniel Boone" with Fess Parker and "Route 66."

Her autobiography, "His Eye Is on the Sparrow," was a best seller in 1951.

She was philosophical about the wealth she made and lost. When forced to subsist mainly on Social Security in later life, she said, "If half the people that owed me money paid it back, I'd be a rich woman." She refused to compromise her past glory by making commercials, maintaining her dignity as she lived out her years in Pasadena, Calif.

Searching

- Select "match all" to find records that contain all search terms in all fields
- Select "match any" to find records with a value in at least one search field. (You must use "OR" between words or phrases in the same field)
- Combine keywords and attributes to narrow results
- Begin typing in attribute boxes to see matching options.(Enter "st" into the Georgia County field to see all county options starting with or containing "st")
- Use quotation marks to search as a phrase
- Use "+" before a term to make it required (Otherwise results matching only some of your terms may be included)
- Use "-" before a word or phrase to exclude
- Use "OR", "AND", and "NOT" (must be capitalized) to create complex boolean logic
- You can use parentheses in your complex expressions
- Truncation and wildcards are not supported - word-stemming is done automatically

Searching Tips

- Try search terms that compensate for common misspellings or incorrect OCR.
- Consider the language used during the time period you are searching through.
- First names were often abbreviated in nineteenth century papers (Wm. = William).
- First and middle initials are commonly used during that same time period (E. S. Stephens = Eugene Samuel Stephens).
- Use exclusion words to help narrow your search results.
