FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 14, 2022

REGISTER FOR FREE CLASSES ON GEORGIA'S RESPONSE TO THE DESEGREGATION OF SCHOOLS

Four free classes that cover education during segregation and the State's response to the desegregation of schools using records at the Georgia Archives are now open for registration. The classes are made available through a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

For more information, or to register for one or more of the classes, email Penny Cliff at Penelope.Cliff@usg.edu and request a registration form.

The classes will be a combination of lecture, PowerPoint, discussion, short videos, and examination of facsimiles of documents housed at the Georgia Archives. Visits to the Original Documents Reading Area (ODRA) to view documents discussed in the classes will be given at the end of each class.

- Class 1: Legal Background/Government Support – August 19, 2022 – 9:00 a.m. to noon
- Class 2: Separate But not Equal – August 26, 2022 – 9:00 a.m. to noon
- Class 3: Brown v. Board of Education and After – October 21, 2022 – 9:00 a.m. to noon
- Class 4: Turning the Tide – October 28, 2022 – 9:00 a.m. to noon

The Georgia Archives is a unit of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia. The Georgia Archives identifies, collects, manages, preserves, provides access to, and publicizes records and information of Georgia and its people, and assists state and local government agencies with their records management.
