ANNUAL GENEALOGY PICNIC ON-SITE AND VIRTUAL

Join the Georgia Genealogical Society and the Georgia Archives in Morrow, Ga. on Saturday, June 4, for the Annual Genealogy Picnic beginning at 9:00 a.m. The event will be offered both on-site and virtually.

To watch live, follow this link to register for the webinar: <https://tinyurl.com/4rvzse25>

Download the free Microsoft Teams app prior to the event and register through the link above. The link to this presentation will also be available on the Georgia Archives webpage: www.georgiaarchives.org. Once registered, Teams will send an email with a link to the presentation.

From 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m., Professional Genealogist Larry W. Thomas will present “Probing Probate Records for More Than Just a Will.”

After a short break, Georgia Archives Deputy Director Kayla Barrett will present “Genealogical Information in Georgia Court Records” from 10:15 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

From 11:00 a.m. to noon, there will be a genealogist round table. A panel of experienced genealogical researchers will answer questions about family history resources and research strategies to document Georgia families. The panel will accept questions in advance on research techniques and resources. Please submit questions for the panel in advance via <https://tinyurl.com/Archives-panel>.

From noon to 1:00 p.m., bring your lunch and blanket to enjoy an outside picnic on the grass. The Georgia Archives is open for research from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

The Georgia Archives is located at 5800 Jonesboro Rd., Morrow, GA 30260.

The Georgia Archives is a unit of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia. The Georgia Archives identifies, collects, manages, preserves, provides access to, and publicizes records and information of Georgia and its people, and assists state and local government agencies with their records management.
