Georgia Archives Programs and Education Resources

The Georgia Archives' offers resources available on the Programs and Education page of the Archives' website. "Programs" is located under the "visit" tab on the navigation bar. Posted here is the video of the Georgia Archives' virtual Lunch and Learn program Discovering Your Georgia Roots Using the Virtual Vault presented by Reference Archivist Tamika Strong. On this video, Strong explores genealogy resources available on the Virtual Vault. Included on the site to compliment the presentation are several handouts: How to use the Virtual Vault and instructions, presentation slides, and a Virtual Vault scavenger hunt.

The Lunch and Learn video can also be viewed on the YouTube channel "Georgia Archives."

On the Programs and Education page are also handouts and PowerPoints on genealogy, slave laws, and family research. You can view curated digitally accessible exhibits showcasing resources at the Georgia Archives. Exhibits illustrate subjects in Georgia history with primary sources and include useful information for the family history researcher.

Look for future additions to the Programs and Education page.
