June 2025 Lunch & Learn Presentation
Portman Archives: Legacy of Architect & Artist John C. Portman, Jr. by Paige Adair, Katie Twomey, and Becca Brown

The Georgia Archives Lunch & Learn presentation, Portman Archives: Legacy of Architect & Artist John C. Portman, Jr., by Paige Adair, Katie Twomey, and Becca Brown, will take place on-site on Friday, June 13, 2025, from noon to 1:00 p.m. at the Georgia Archives, 5800 Jonesboro Road, Morrow, GA.

This event is free and open to the public, with no registration required.

Join the staff of the Portman Archives and delve into the design legacy of Atlanta native, John C. Portman, Jr. The presentation will discuss Portman's architectural designs, philosophies, and influence on the development of modern Atlanta and other cities around the world. It will also discuss how Mr. Portman's legacy is promoted and preserved by the Portman Archives.

About the Speakers

Paige Adair is the Senior Archivist and Fine Arts Specialist at the Portman Archives in Atlanta, where she has worked since 2013 to manage visual materials and provide access to the work of architect and artist John C. Portman, Jr. With an MFA from the University of Pennsylvania and a background in painting, Paige brings both artistic and archival expertise to her role.

Katie Twomey has served as an Archivist at the Portman Archives since 2017, where she focuses on architectural drawings and leads outreach initiatives. She holds degrees in Landscape Architecture and Historic Preservation and is particularly interested in the intersection of cultural landscapes and archival work.

Becca Brown joined the Portman Archives in 2018 and specializes in digital cataloging and paper media. With a background in English, Anthropology, and Archival Studies, Becca brings over a decade of experience in archaeology and historic preservation to her archival work.
