FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 21, 2025

2025 Preventive Conservation Workshop

The Georgia Archives Conservation Department is excited to present a three-day workshop in 2025 on Preventive Conservation: Care of Archives, Art, and Artifacts.

This workshop is for anyone working in cultural heritage institutions, libraries, museums, and galleries, or anyone who has an interest in learning how to best look after their items. They are suitable for beginner to intermediate attendees, and prior conservation experience is not required. The workshops will cover the causes of material degradation, environmental monitoring and control, integrated pest management, housekeeping, preservation policies, storage of furniture and enclosures, risk assessment, emergency planning and procedures, and disaster recovery. Participants are also welcome to share their experience with preservation and discuss ways to problem solve for specific concerns. Presented in a hybrid format, both online and in person, join us to gain a greater understanding of how to best look after your treasures!

The workshops are generously sponsored by the NHPRC with subsidies on the cost of registration.

REGISTRATION FEE:

$50.00 (Registration fees include handout materials, and snacks will be provided.)

WHEN:

October 27-29, 2025 (capacity of 30) – Final day to register or cancel is October 24, 2025.
