September 2024 Lunch & Learn
Case Studies on Community Engagement Practices for Preservation and Public History
by Nedra Deadwyler

The Georgia Archives Lunch & Learn presentation, Case Studies on Community Engagement Practices for Preservation and Public History by Nedra Deadwyler, will be held onsite. The presentation is on Friday, September 13th, 2024, from noon to 1:00 p.m. at the Georgia Archives, 5800 Jonesboro Road, Morrow, GA.

The Lunch and Learn presentation is free, and no registration is required.

Join us for an insightful presentation by Nedra Deadwyler titled, Case Studies on Community Engagement Practices for Preservation and Public History. In this talk, Nedra will draw from her personal public history projects to explore equitable, community-centered solutions for preservation and public history.

Nedra Deadwyler is a dedicated social worker, cultural preservationist, and creative force who champions equitable processes to amplify community voices in defining and shaping their spaces and narratives. With a focus on humanity, lived experiences, and community care, her work embodies a deep respect for our diverse world. Nedra's academic background includes a Master of Heritage Preservation from Georgia State University, a Master of Social Work from New York University, and a Bachelor of Social Work from the University of Georgia. She served as Scholar-in-Residence with the Atlanta Beltline in 2021 and is also a published author.

The Georgia Archives is a unit of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia. The Georgia Archives identifies, collects, manages, preserves, provides access to, and publicizes records and information of Georgia and its people, and assists state and local government agencies with their records management.
