

The African Case

In September of 1817, a slave ship, possibly either the Portuguese ship Jesu Nasareno or the Spanish schooner Isabelita, left the west coast of Africa bound for Cuba, with a cargo of about ninety to one hundred and ten Africans...

...Though most records do not name individuals, there are a few records that tell us a little about who the Africans were and what happened to them.

An Exhibit Presented by the Georgia Archives
February 9 through May 11, 2019