DISASTER PLANNING FOR PERSONAL RECORDS: JULY LUNCH AND LEARN

On Friday, July 13, 2018, noon-1: 00 pm, the Georgia Archives Lunch and Learn program will be Disaster Planning for Personal Records by Christine Garrett, Georgia Archives Electronic Records Manager.

This presentation is aimed at helping residents identify essential personal records and how to protect them from disasters. Christine will share new information on how to recover from a disaster, protect rights and identities, and preserve memories.

Christine has been the Electronic Records Manager at the Georgia Archives since 2014. She oversees the Electronic Records Program and the State Records Program.

Lunch and Learn Programs are free and open to the public and are sponsored by Friends of Georgia Archives and History. No registration is required.

The Georgia Archives is a unit of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia. The Georgia Archives identifies, collects, manages, preserves, provides access to, and publicizes records and information of Georgia and its people, and assists state and local government agencies with their records management. This work is done within the framework of the USG's mission to create a more highly educated Georgia.
