GEORGIA ARCHIVES, 100 YEARS: WHERE WE ARE NOW. FROM IDEA TO REALITY
SATURDAY, JULY 14, 10:00 A.M. TO 11:00 A.M.
FREE!

On Saturday, July 14, 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. is a brand new behind the scenes "Georgia Archives, 100 Years: Where We Are Now: Idea to Reality" tour. This tour will give you the opportunity to go behind the scenes in several areas in the Archives. Follow professionals as they present the path that leads from "idea to reality."

Have you ever wondered how we create exhibits here at the Georgia Archives? Join us on this tour as reference archivist, Allison Hudgins, and preservation technician, Tracey Johnson, take you behind the scenes and show how an idea becomes reality. From the selection of collection materials for display to the installation in our exhibit cases, learn all about the work that goes into a successful exhibit.

Attendees will be visiting the conservation and reformatting labs, exhibit preparation room, and behind the exhibit cases.

The tour is free. No registration is required. Please wear comfortable shoes.
