

Georgia Archives

Lunch and Learn Lecture Series

Lectures are FREE and no reservations are required. Bring your lunch and join us for outstanding programs on a wide variety of subjects. All programs are from 12 noon to 1 p.m.

Georgia Archives 5800 Jonesboro Road Morrow, GA 30260
For directions, please see www.GeorgiaArchives.org and select "Visit."

Upcoming Lectures

Friday, December 14, 2018

"5 Generations: From Enslavement to Public Service in Atlanta" a documentary by historian and 2017 Georgia Historical Records Advisory Council (GHRAC) award-winner, Laurel Wilson.

Ms. Wilson will share her experience in creating a documentary about local African American heritage. She will discuss her use of myriad resources in shaping the narrative of one Metro Atlanta family's journey from Reconstruction through modern times, as well as some of the challenges associated with African American genealogical research and digital media production.

Friday, January 11, 2019

"Antique Mechanical Music: Music Boxes, Street Organs and More!" by Craig Darlak, Collector and member of Automated Musical Instruments of America.

Mr. Darlak will bring approximately 50 different types of antique mechanical music to the Lunch and Learn from small to the largest being 2 street organs.

Friday, February 8, 2019

"Colonial Georgia: The Oglethorpe Years" by Robert Jones, historian and author.

Mr. Jones served as President of the Kennesaw Historical Society for 21 years and also served as a member of the executive board of the Kennesaw Museum Foundation for 17 years. He has written 45+ books on historical topics.

Sponsored by Friends of Georgia Archives and History