DNA in your Genealogy: Research for Beginners

November Lunch and Learn

Morrow, GA, October 24, 2019 – On Friday, November 8, noon-1:00 p.m., the Georgia Archives' Lunch and Learn program will be presented by professional genealogist Captain Larry W. Thomas. The presentation will be DNA in your Genealogy: Research for Beginners.

Are you still puzzled as to whether to take a DNA test or which test to take? Do you doubt it will help in your genealogy research? Come to this presentation and learn about how to use DNA results in your genealogy research, which tests to take, and which testing company to use. This is a presentation for people just learning about DNA testing.

Since 2008, Captain Thomas has been a professional genealogist, researcher, and speaker. He has over 30 years of experience in genealogy research and over ten years' experience helping clients. He is the past president of the Cobb County Genealogical Society, and a member of the following organizations: Georgia Genealogical Society, Gwinnett County Genealogical Society, and the Genealogical Speakers Guild.

The Georgia Archives is located at 5800 Jonesboro Road, Morrow, Georgia.

Lunch and Learn Programs are free and open to the public and are sponsored by Friends of Georgia Archives and History (FOGAH). Door prizes are drawn at each Lunch and Learn program. No registration is required.
